Enigmatig Limited Invests in KUNGFULAND, First-Scripted Feature-Length Action-Comedy Singapore and Canada Treaty Co-Production Using Virtual Production

Enigmatig's Investment Aimed at Supporting Singapore's Creative Ambition Across Borders

SINGAPORE, Jul 21, 2026 – Enigmatig Limited (NYSE American: EGG) (“Enigmatig” or the “Company”), a global business enabler supporting companies expanding across borders, today announced its investment in KUNGFULAND, the first scripted feature-length action-comedy Treaty co-production between Singapore and Canada using Virtual Production. Principal photography on the film began June 10, 2026, at AUX Infinite Studios in Singapore.

KUNGFULAND is produced by Singapore-based Ajacent Media and Canadian-based 100 Dragons and supported by the Infocomm Media Development Authority of Singapore (IMDA). Set in Chinatown 1999, the film pays homage to the golden era of 1970s martial arts cinema, shot using cutting-edge LED wall technology combined with Shaw Brothers-inspired practical sets. The film stars Idrissa Sanogo Bamba, Ellen Wong, Dion Johnstone, and Hugh Tran, with a cameo by legendary Hong Kong actor David Chiang.

“At Enigmatig, our work has always been about one thing — helping ambitious ideas find their way across borders. KUNGFULAND embodies exactly that spirit: a homegrown Singapore story built to reach the world,” said Desmond Foo, Founder and CEO of Enigmatig.

“We are proud to support this production and play a small part in helping local creative talent and storytelling reach broader audiences. As a Singapore-headquartered company, it is meaningful to back initiatives like this.” he added.

For Enigmatig, the investment goes beyond the film industry. It reflects the same conviction that drives the Company’s core work — that ambition deserves support, wherever it comes from, and that Singapore has stories worth telling on a global stage.

KUNGFULAND is written by Canadian Maninder Chana and Singaporeans Jacen Tan and Andrew Ngin, and directed by Jacen Tan. It will be produced by Singaporean Kat Goh and Canadian Teresa M. Ho, and distributed by Shaw Organisation (Singapore), Raven Banner Releasing (Canada), and Flourishing Films (rest of the world).
